

LIGHTING

9. The Satellite Suspension ceiling fixture from OGGETTI is crafted in Italy from paper strips randomly attached to an acrylic substructure, creating an orb of light that emits a substantial, wonderful glow. Through Dovecote, Westport, 203-222-7522, dovecote-westport.com, oggetti.com. 10. No two Omer-Arbel-designed Series 28 fixtures are the same: Each is fabricated from a complex glassblowing technique, resulting in a distorted spherical appearance with a collection of inner shapes. Through DDC, NYC, 212-685-0800, ddcnyc.com, omerarbel.com. 11. Created in collaboration with ceramicist Alice Goldsmith, the Link Porcelain Mono light by APPARATUS features fractured porcelain links suspending an oversized spun-brass shade and secured by a woven-brass mesh cord. NYC, 646-527-9732, apparatusstudio.com (T). 12. Inspired by Miami Art Deco architecture, the Clipper wall mount from URBAN ELECTRIC is suited for both indoor and outdoor use. Available in four unique finishes, Clipper is shown here in hewn brass with etched-ribbed glass. 843-723-8140, urbanelectricco.com (T). 13. Reminiscent of underwater corals, the Anemone wall lamp from DESIGN BY HIVE features hundreds of hand-molded polystyrene tentacles, which are woven together after being heated and crafted to the desired shape. Through Voce Di, Greenwich, 203-422-0567, vocedi.com, designbyhive.com.
