BLURRED LINES

KATE LONG STEVENSON: IN HER WORDS

Medium: Acrylic, gouache and watercolor—layered with charcoal.

Trademark: Abstract Expressionist, representational and feminine.

Women's intuition: The female form is universally relatable and beautiful, and I love to take that familiarity and turn it on its head.

Art game changer: Decidedly the biggest shift in my career was the decision to create for myself and not the market; it's refreshing to produce work that I am passionate about.

Creative influences: Painterly work—from Impressionism to John Singer Sargent's brushstrokes and glowing color—and Abstract Expressionists like Joan Mitchell and Willem de Kooning.

Never too many... Laughs, long conversations, lunch dates or snooze-button hits. My art is... Gestural, energetic and mysterious.
