

THE GUIDE to LIVING WITH STYLE domino

monika bieglar eyers
SENIOR MARKET EDITOR

More storybook than botany text, these pieces give nature motifs a fantastical spin.

From one of my favorite textile designers, melamine-covered place mats that recall distant lands. ABOUT $24 AND $35 ALLEGRAHICKS.COM

the inspiration

I loved this far-out book as a child and can't wait for the "grown-up" movie (from writer Dave Eggers and auteur Spike Jonze), due out in 2008. "Where the Wild Things Are" by Maurice Sendak $11.53 AMAZON.COM

A hand-block-printed silk quilt blends earthy craft and luxury materials. Better Living sari quilt $425/QUEEN, MOON SOUP (212) 319-3222

Silvery stalks bedazzle this day-to-night pillow (I'd use it for OJ or sangria). Blown glass KIM SEYBERT (631) 329-6

This magnetic curtain pullback looks as if it's sprouting from the window frame. Gold-finish resin $110 C MAESTRONI (203) 422-0

The grasslike lines bisecting this modern bowl evoke a secret path. "Gold Scribble" $32 CALVIN KLEIN (212) 292-9000

Made of nickel-plated brass and mirror hand-etched with a design inspired by 18th-century wallpaper. Collector's Edition "Elsie" mirrored lamp $2,428 BAKERFURNITURE.COM FOR STORES

An exuberant burst of tropicalia for the sofa. Dermond Peterson 20 linen "Palm" pillow $ GDC HOME (843) 571-514

DOMINO
APRIL 2007 / ELSIE

THE URBAN ELECTRIC CO.