1 BRIDLE PARTY
Like a prized show jumper, Barrett barware from Ralph Lauren Home has thoroughbred grace. Made of clear crystal with leather straps, the collection includes a decanter, $395; wine coaster, $225; ice bucket, $395; and round tray (not shown), $395. For store locations, call 888-475-7674 or visit rhome.polo.com.

2 MADE IN THE SHADE
The Urban Electric Co.'s Gwenwood pendant fits right in, whether the setting is a bare-bones loft or a country house antiqued to a fare-thee-well. Available in 13 finishes and 5 contrasting metal and painted accents, it comes in two sizes: 27" high with a 14" diameter and 50" high with a 23.5" diameter. The lamp is from an 18-piece debut collection by interior designer Darryl Carter that is available to the trade only; call 843-723-8140 or visit urbanelectricco.com.

3 CLEAN SWEEP
Timothy Corrigan often studs his show-stopping rooms with chateau-quality antiques. To tend to them, the L.A.-based designer has launched a line of home-care products incorporating natural ingredients such as beeswax and coybean oil. The set of four 12-oz. bottles—one solution for silver, another for fabrics, and two for wood—is $48. To order, visit timothy-corrigan.com.

4 GILT COMPLEX
Inspired by an antique carpet, the Tabriz earthenware platter by L'Objet has a scalloped edge painted with 14-karat gold. The rims of the complementary dessert plates and coffee mugs gleam just as brightly. The platter measures 16" L x 8" w. and costs $130; buy it from neimannmarcus.com.
