THE URBAN ELECTRIC CO.

HOUSE BEAUTIFUL
 SEPT 2012 / CHISHOLM HALL

THE URBAN ELECTRIC CO.

1. Terre Cuite tile from Paris Ceramics shimmers like mother-of-pearl next to the white cabinetry in the kitchen, and Urban Electric's Chisholm Hall lanterns add a splash of color. 2. In the wife's office, pink lamps by Christopher Spitzmuller stand out against brown grass cloth by Winfield Thybony. 3. The bar's Aladdin tile from Waterworks conjures up an exotic Moroccan feel. 4. Little jolts of orange punctuate the beiges and pale blues in the family room. 5. Cole and Son's Woods wallcovering from Lee Jofa gives the small powder room big personality. 6. A pair of Currey & Company Circe benches stored under a Circolo console from Niermann Weeks can serve as extra seating in the living room. OPPOSITE: Whittaker wanted to use Chinese scenic wallpaper in the dining room, but the client was afraid it would be too much pattern. "We met in the middle," she says, "and got decorative painter Agustin Hurtado to embellish chocolate-lacquered walls with a bronze vine." Metal Leaf Ingot wallcovering from Surfaces by David Bonk adds a glamorous sheen to the ceiling. Custom dining chairs upholstered in Metallic Dream Cow by Edelman Leather and antiqued gilt lanterns from Holly Hunt amplify the glow.
