1. SLEEK DREAMS New York designer Ceci Thompson has worked with big names like Calvin Klein, Marc Jacobs and Ralph Lauren. For her latest partnership, with CB2, she designed the Frame canopy bed — a dramatic matte-black and brass number with a pared-back silhouette. Powder-coated iron; brass. 80" h. x 63" w. x 84" d. $1,099 (queen). At CB2.

2. FRINGE BENEFITS Perk up a tired sofa or armchair with artfully textured pillows. Each Elizabeth pillow is hand-woven for a charmingly homespun feel. Elizabeth II (bottom) and III pillows by Minna x Hawkins New York. Wool; cotton-canvas; polyester fill. 16" sq. Approx. $200 each. Through Minna.

3. DISH IT OUT Brooke Winfrey, the Brooklyn-based artisan behind BTW Ceramics, makes all her glazed porcelain dishware by hand. The pieces "embrace the irregular," so even your morning bowl of cereal can feel like a work of art. Everyday Striped bowl. 2½" h. x 6" diam. Approx. $80. Through BTW Ceramics.

4. BRIGHT IDEA Take custom lighting to new heights with The Pop sconce, which allows you to fill its back plate with wallpaper. Use the same print on your walls and back plate for a totally seamless look. In Polished Nickel with custom wallpaper inset and Soft White large globe by Michael Amato. 5" sq. x 1¼" d. Approx. $1,002. Through The Urban Electric Co.

5. SOFT SPOT While it comes in four cool colourways, we can't resist the Green Velvet version of the Jack chair. Rich upholstery and plush cushions make it a cosy place to curl up with a book or magazine. 31½" h. x 27" w. x 30" d. Approx. $2,140. Through Schoolhouse Electric & Supply Co.
