

O AT HOME
WINTER 2008 / GWENWOOD

THE URBAN ELECTRIC CO.

Old + New How to Make It Work

Darryl Carter, a modernist who draws inspiration from classic antiques, shares his tricks for using neutral ground to achieve harmony across the ages.

BY MELINDA PAGE • PHOTOGRAPHS BY LUCAS ALLEN • PRODUCED BY NATALIE WINDY

THE COLOR ISSUE
Neutrals have the power to unify rooms.

Use the right spot
Lobby often is a great spot to place a modernist piece. In this case, a classic lamp is placed in the lobby to help tie the space together.

At conventional coffee table
A classic coffee table is a great choice for a modernist space. In this case, a classic coffee table is placed in the lobby to help tie the space together.

Butler's kitchen
A classic butler's kitchen is a great choice for a modernist space. In this case, a classic butler's kitchen is placed in the lobby to help tie the space together.