

WHAT'S NEW

INDUSTRIAL REVOLUTION

Steven Gambrel's Urban Electric collection pays meticulous attention to detail, while striking a balance between function and beauty.

Handcrafted in lilac glass with polished nickel and blackened pewter accents, the Grayfoxy ceiling pendant adds an industrial spirit to your space. $3,285, through Urban Electric, Charleston, SC, 843-723-8140, urbanelectricco.com.

SLICE 'N' DICE

Whether you don't know the difference between a bread knife and a pear knife, or are just trying to prep like a pro, Alessi's Tatau knife set will have you dicing with ease. Its blade is "ratrooded" with the tool's optimal uses. Knives, $42-$69, bolder, $155, through Lux, Bond & Green, West Hartford, 860-561-6550, lbgreen.com, alessi.com.

EUROPE BOUND

Inspired by Europe's famed luxury train, the Venice Simplon-Orient-Express, Villeroy & Boch's new tableware line is designed to complement the aesthetic of the train's three restaurant cars. L'Oriental's Asian-themed design is rimmed with elegant birds among reeds and grasses. All aboard! villeroy-boch.com.

—Ann Loynd

INNOVATIVE DESIGN

Fine Art Flooring

Industrial artist Dana Scinto takes decorative arts to the next level with this 16-by-11-foot floorcloth. Scinto created the design, inspired by a Henri Goussier 1940s-era rug, in Illustrator before hand-painting it on a pre-cut canvas. Dana Scinto Design Studios, New Haven, 203-550-1256, danascinto.com.

CONNECTICUT COTTAGE & GARDENS
JULY 2012 / GRAYFOXY

THE URBAN ELECTRIC Co.